In the beginning there was nothing. The Lord dipped his finger into the sea and created man. He made man in his own image and likeness, male and female. He blessed them and said, 'Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over all the animals that live on the ground. Give every animal its food, as I have given you every plant for food. Only man is to eat meat, but only after you have slaughtered the animal. Blood must never be eaten, for the life of the animal is in the blood. And for you, I have given every green plant for food. Only man is to eat meat, but only after you have slaughtered the animal. Blood must never be eaten, for the life of the animal is in the blood. And for you, I have given every green plant for food.'

You realize that you are in a league above all others. When it comes to days, to assure you to approach my regal, you're miles above the rest of the world. So how can you wear anything but a suit, tailor-made. Keeping in mind that nobody even comes close in terms of sheer quality. Soar above the world like an eagle. Fly as high as the sun.

In the beginning there was beauty of love. The Lord dipped his pen in color and designed the world. And in the center he created a woman, dressed in a dress so divine... that he looked lost in the ultimate creation.
Some say when you dress in the propered form, you look much like her.
